Question 1

Study the source below and answer questions that follow.

We were a mixed community. People of different races, different religions and different languages lived side by side.

They said that District Six was a slum. They were moving us to much better houses in another part of Cape Town.

No. We knew that the real reason was they did not want people from different races to live in the same area.

I was lucky. I moved about two weeks before the bulldozers came. But my friend was not so lucky. He was having breakfast when he heard a loud noise. He saw that a bulldozer had just crashed through the front wall of his house.
